Summer Programs
Join us for camps, clubs, and lessons!

Take advantage of our summer programs, and enjoy the opportunity to focus on special areas of interest, such as pop/jazz music, ensemble playing, composition, or theory.

Register online
www.nsmspiano.org/summer-programs

Motive Theory Camp
July 15-19, 9:30AM-12:30PM
$350
Kristin Cahill and Charl Louw

Motive is an intensive theory camp to prepare students for RCM Theory Assessments. Learn how to master exercises in the Celebrate Theory books that provide a strong foundation for understanding how music is put together. Stumped by the “rest fill-in” sections? Learn unique ways to solve these rhythm puzzles. Students will gain a solid command of their Celebrate Theory levels that support solo playing.

Ensemble Club
Thursdays, 5:30-6:30PM
July 11, 18, 25, and August 1, 8, 15, 22
$200
Rebecca Pennington and NSMS faculty

Open to students of all ages and levels. Explore a variety of ensembles, including duets, trios, and quartets. This club will culminate in a performance during the last class! Join us in making music with others.

Composition Club
Thursdays, 6:30-7:30PM
July 11, 18, 25, and August 1, 8, 15, 22
$200
Rebecca Pennington and NSMS faculty

Open to students of all ages and levels. Explore improvisation ideas and styles in a fun and interactive class environment. The club will culminate in a composition recital.

Private Lessons
July and August
$235 (four 45-minute lessons)
NSMS faculty

Flexible schedule! Select a specific genre such as pop, jazz, or movie music, for a change of pace during the summer months.